Integrating Woman Leaders Foundation Names Eli Lilly's
Nancy K. Allen as Board Chair

INDIANAPOLIS (May 4, 2018) - Nancy K. Allen has been elected Chair of the Board of the Indianapolis-based Integrating Woman Leaders Foundation (IWL), a 501(c) non-profit organization with a mission of accelerating the advancement of women to drive individual and organizational growth and impact. Driven by research, IWL's work complements a company's HR, Diversity & Inclusion, Gender Equality and professional development strategy.

Ms. Allen is Senior Director, Global Regulatory Affairs, at Eli Lilly and Company. She leads the organizations responsible for the development and submission of pharmaceutical product documents to regulatory agencies globally, a leadership role she has held since 2006. A scientist by training, she is a graduate of Kent State University with a Bachelor of Science in Chemistry.

Ms. Allen was IWL's board treasurer before assuming the Board Chair role from the Founder, CEO, and Board Chair Emeritus Jennifer Holmes. Ms. Holmes founded IWL in 2010 as a resource for business leaders and organizations to tackle very real gender issues with optimism and proven strategies that work. IWL is a resource for companies and individual woman. "I am thrilled to have Nancy at the helm leading the IWL Foundation Board into the future. She is an accomplished executive and leader. Given her abilities, she has the board's full confidence and support to ensure the organization achieves the aggressive growth plan it has set for itself. Meanwhile my passion and commitment to the meaningful work of the Foundation remains high," states Jennifer. Ms. Holmes will continue to serve on the Board focused on corporate sponsorships and the launch of the IWL Foundation's donor development program.
